Workshop description

The workshop aims to give dancers an opportunity to learn classical, contemporary, and lyrical dance styles to be performed at competitions and showcases. In addition, the workshop aims to spark interest so that more students will enroll in these classes.

Group Contemporary and Lyrical Choreography: Choreograph a routine for the group. The choreography does not have to be too long and it does not have to be performed with great precision, but ideally, would have some uniformity to it. Not all dancers have to execute all steps and we can highlight those dancers that have more technique

Solo Contemporary and Lyrical Choreography: All dancers in the group will learn the choreography. We will decide on Thursday who will perform the solo. If appropriate, two dancers can perform the choreography if they are both at the same technique and artistry level. This is the idea about a competition as there is usually only one 1st place.

Ballet Barre and Variations: For this class, we warm up the dancers and teach them a classical variation – the choreography can be simplified if needed. At the end of the week, one dancer will perform the variation.
